Dear

Welcome to

As a new employee you are eligible for a number of valuable resources and employer-sponsored programs. Our company has partnered with ADP Resource, a worldwide leader in employee and employer services, to bring you access to exclusive online tools and resources, great employee perks and discounts, an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) and more.

Please take a moment to review the enclosed employee welcome kit and familiarize yourself with the services now available to you. If any of the information in this letter is incorrect, please notify your hiring manager immediately.

Login to the ADP Resource secure Web site at www.MyADPResource.com. Your username is printed below. To protect your privacy, we are sending your password separately.

Username:

Once you have logged in, feel free to explore the site. You can view your paycheck history, edit your personal information, and download needed forms. Also, be sure to browse through the training available to you and don't forget to take advantage of some great deals in our employee perks section.

If you have questions regarding your login information, please call the Employee Service Center at (800) 416-6131.

As an employee you are eligible for these valuable products and services:

My ADP Resource: This secure web site enables you to track and view your personal payroll history from any computer with an Internet connection. You can also download and print key employment forms and learn about special discounts and other employee perks (see below).

Employee Perks: Get great deals and discounts on products and services from some of the biggest names in leisure, retail, the Internet and more. To access these and other great perks, log onto My ADP Resource and look for the Perks link under the Information & Tools section.

Employee Assistance Program (EAP): Life's Solutions EAP helps you take that first step toward confronting and conquering personal concerns such as depression, anxiety, or marital or relationship issues. You (or your dependent) begin the process by calling your EAP and speaking with a Life's Solutions EAP Counselor/Case Manager. The counselor assesses the situation and determines whether immediate crisis intervention is required. The counselor will then make a referral to an appropriate local, licensed specialist for confidential, personal, face-to-face counseling and follow up treatment. The first three visits are provided to you (or your dependent) at no charge. For additional information or referrals, please call during normal business hours, which are 8:30 am - 9:00 pm, Eastern Time, Monday - Friday. 24/7 telephonic assistance is available for emergency situations. When calling, please mention that you are an "ADP Resource employee or dependant." Help is only a phone call away: 1(888) 231-7015.

Training: ADP Resource provides comprehensive professional development training seminars led by employment experts. You will gain knowledge and skills to put to use immediately. Schedules and seminar details are available on My ADP Resource.

Got Questions? The Employee Service Center (ESC) has the answers! (800) 416-6131

The ESC is staffed by experts who can answer any questions you might have regarding your paycheck, perks or related issues. We are here to help! The ESC is open Monday to Friday, 8:00 am to 10:00 pm, Eastern Time or is available via e-mail at esc_resource@adp.com.

Congratulations on your new position and welcome to

Sincerely,

Form W-4 (2010)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2010 expires February 16, 2011. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. You cannot claim exemption from withholding if (a) your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends) and (b) another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2010. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws, and using it in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
